Tasting Notes

Notes of berry fruit on the nose. Originating in the Cote de Beaune but located on the border with the Cote de Nuits, this wine is an interesting blend of structure and elegance. Perfect with grilled or roasted red meat.

Viticulture

This appellation on the north side of the Côte de Beaune is situated at the foot of the Corton hill, on its eastern side. The orientation of the vineyards is south east and the soil is made up of limestone and clay on a marly subsoil.

Winemaking

Aged in French oak barrels
