Tasting Notes

Vibrant, rich coral pink colour. On the nose the wine is effortlessly ripe, fresh with orange peel, rose petals and strawberry ice-cream aromas. First sip strikes with juicy peach flavours that are in perfect balance with red-fruit creaminess. Pleasing touch of herbaceous notes gives complexity and dimensionality to yeast-infused berry flavours. Aftertaste is long, persistent and moreish. Perfect condition to drink now, but will improve with age and time on cork. Both a serious and gastronomic wine that will pair brilliantly with a whole range of dishes, this is equally a crowd-pleaser that gives much pleasure on its own

Winemaking

Coldharbour Vineyard, planted in 2005. Vines were 13 years old at the time of harvest. 70-100m above sea level. West Sussex chalk with clay and flint. 100% stainless steel, 5 years on lees.

"Linear and taut with great precision showing subtle leafy hints with cherry and cranberry hints as well as keen acidity and fine spicy hints. So linear and fine with lovely purity"
