Producer

Founded in 2006 by Limerick man Dermot Sugrue, Sugrue South Downs is based at the foot of the South Downs in West Sussex, centred on the Storrington Priory Vineyard. After early experience in Bordeaux and Champagne, and a defining tenure as Head Winemaker at Nyetimber, Sugrue established himself as one of the leading figures in English sparkling wine. The release of The Trouble With Dreams quickly cemented the estate's reputation, with subsequent vintages earning cult status and positioning Sugrue South Downs among the UK's most respected names.

Tasting Notes

The nose is bright and fresh, offering a touch of green apple and lemon with a subtle saltiness. The palate has wonderful energy, driven by its lemon brightness and deep chalkiness. Beautifully clear-cut with sprightly mousse. Pure, brisk, crisp, and delicious

Winemaking

100% fermented in stainless steel, without malolactic fermentation. Bottled in July 2021, followed by 36 months on lees. First disgorged in July 2024.
