Producer

Jose Cuervo is the world's oldest tequila maker, from the town of Tequila in western Mexico. In 1758 José Antonio de Cuervo received a land grant there, and in 1795 the family was granted a royal licence to produce, opening the first distillery, La Rojeña, which still makes Jose Cuervo tequila today. We list Especial Silver and Especial Gold, the mixing classics, and Tradicional Silver, a 100% agave tequila.

Tasting Notes

Tradicional® Silver is 100% blue agave silver tequila. It is irresistibly refined. When bottled, a special process is used to conserve its flavor and finish at freezing temperatures. This means that it can, and should, be kept chilled in the freezer and served as a crisp, smooth, frozen shot.
