

Trés Venerable, Cognac Grande Champagne, Delamain

Tasting Notes

A blend of very old Cognacs from the Grande Champagne region, with barrel ageing of around 55 years, it expresses the nobility of a truly great Cognac when it has reached the peak of development. The bouquet is intense yet lightly floral, giving way to complex scents of underwood, raisins, vanilla, liquorice and honey. On the palate, it is mellow and round as a result of long ageing. It has an extraordinarily complex long finish tinged with liquorice and dried fruits.
