Pale straw yellow, clear and bright with a fine perlage Fruity with scents of apple and pear Fresh, harmonious, long and persistent flavor

Viticulture

The vineyard area extends through the band of hills of the Province of Treviso in the Veneto region in northern Italy and encompasses the area between the towns of Conegliano and Valdobbiadene. The Glera grapes for this wine come from around Treviso where the soils are limestone with some clay and the altitude is 250 metres and the orientation is south. The climate is Mediterranean with hot summers and mild winters although the altitude of some the vineyards provides significant diurnal fluctuation. The Glera vines for this wine are aged between 6-15 years old and are farmed organically. Harvesting is done by hand.

Winemaking

Soil type: Alluvial origin, Altimetry and exposure: 50 m a.s.l., south exposure, Vineyards age:6 - 15 years. Plantation system:Double-arched cane. Harvest: Hand picking
