Producer

A range of authentic, sustainable wines that show the great character, elegance and finesse of the Adelaide Hills. Harriet first tasted these wines in situ in 2016. Michael is the fourth generation to farm this plot, but the first to put a unique stamp on the wines emerging. His approach is to make wines focussed on being honest to their origins and express creativity. He works to build freshness and vibrancy in the wines. "I simply wanted to come home and make wine that shows a sense of place, something that is embedded in the European wine culture. This required moving in a more minimalistic winemaking approach utilising wild yeasts, gentle extraction techniques, reducing additions to show the purity of fruit, overall I wanted to make delicious drinkable wine styles that are".

Tasting Notes

Aromatic and textural style using barrel ferment and skin contact techniques. Made in a gentle off-dry style with aromas of green apple, pear and white flowers. Bright acidity with mouthwatering melon and lime flavours that linger onto a chalky back palate.

Winemaking

Fruit sourced from the southern Adelaide Hills. Half fudre, half tank fermentation with a maximum of 4 months from tank to bottle.
