MURDOCH HILL

Producer

A range of authentic, sustainable wines that show the great character, elegance and finesse of the Adelaide Hills. Harriet first tasted these wines in situ in 2016. Michael is the fourth generation to farm this plot, but the first to put a unique stamp on the wines emerging. His approach is to make wines focussed on being honest to their origins and express creativity. He works to build freshness and vibrancy in the wines. "I simply wanted to come home and make wine that shows a sense of place, something that is embedded in the European wine culture. This required moving in a more minimalistic winemaking approach utilising wild yeasts, gentle extraction techniques, reducing additions to show the purity of fruit, overall I wanted to make delicious drinkable wine styles that are".

Tasting Notes

Aromas of pepper, graphite, dark chocolate, blackberry, dark cherry and complex spice. Medium bodied with fruit power of blackberries, dark cherries and plums.

Winemaking

Fruit from single, eastern facing block on Estate vineyard in Oakbank. No more than 10% new oak and whole bunch influence. Larger format oak used.
