Producer

For over 130 years the Serena family have been involved in the production of high quality wine. Gerado and Giorgio, the fifth generation of the family continue the tradition of sourcing Glera grapes from around the Treviso area where the best soils and climate conditions give wines with a uniquely fruity character.

Tasting Notes

Sparkling white wine, pleasant and fresh, great as an aperitif and with a modern and appealing packaging. Aimed at a wide and dynamic audience, ideal to drink in every moment of the day. Pale straw yellow color with greenish reflections. Its perlage is fine and light, clean and intense at smell. Light taste of apple with hints of green fruits. Good structure, fresh and a little sweet.

Winemaking

Produced by the tank method to 3 bars of sparkling pressure
