The Canepa family came from Italy in 1930 in 1996 the three sisters Edda, Gilda and Antonieta founded Terra Mater. Their Italian roots remain firmly in the wines, with Sangiovese and Zinfandel featuring heavily in their wines. Whilst they are winning medals for their Olive oils internationally, the wines have yet to be properly discovered. Their winemaker Paula Cifuentes, is timid, yet assured, something that shines through in her wines. The combination of old vines, a gentle winemaking style and determination is increasingly resulting in wines of surprising precision and finesse. Throw your prejudices' aside, there's a wine for every day of the week in this range!

Tasting Notes

Classic, zesty citrus aromas with light, juicy fruits and a satisfying, long dry finish. Bright yellow colour. Fresh and expressive aromas. Citric notes like grapefruit but also mineral notes. Young and fresh wine with nice acidity. Good volume in the mouth and long ending.

Viticulture

Vines between 40 and 50 years old. Clay loam deep colluvial soil, with a Mediterranean weather. Harvest: Season with no rain and good temperature. Good aromatic expression and acidity. Harvest was carried out the first week of March.

Winemaking

Fermentation: Traditional with selected yeasts. Filtration: Filtration through 0.45 membrane.
